PTFA News

100 Square: The winner for March was 53 Kelly Merrills.

Easter Raffle: Raffle tickets are still on sale for 20p. Children in Infants can purchase tickets outside Vulcan, first thing in the morning; the Junior children can purchase tickets in their classes during registration. This will be drawn on Friday lunchtime.

Lancaster, Hinds & Wolsley: Parents and Carers are invited to attend the Lockdown event on Friday 31st after Assembly. Come into The Studio and look at the children's work on The Red Arrows. Tea and coffee will be available for donations in aid of the John Egging Trust.

Sleep Tight Workshop: A workshop to help with sleep will start on Friday 21st April at school – see below. If you think you and your family might benefit from this, please speak with Mr Beaven.

Sleep Tight Workshops

The workshops consist of 5 sessions these include:

- The importance of sleep—importance of sleep for the whole family, sleep cycles.
- Causes of sleep issues— why children may have sleep problems, identifying causes.
- Identifying and Managing sleep problems— developing an understanding of strategies to use to support sleep issues.
- Bedtime routines—what makes a good bedtime routine.
- Positive bedtimes— what makes a sleep promoting bedroom environment, positive parenting at bedtime.

Then you should enter your best bake in our bake off competition on the 24th April.

Great prizes to be won!
Special guest judges.

Once judging has taken place all bakes will be sold at the end of the day in the school hall to raise money for our school.

There are spaces available in Drum Lessons Shared and Individual Lessons available. Please contact:
